TRANSFORM THE WAY YOU PRICE

SiriusPoint has introduced PricePoint, a self-service web-based pricing tool designed to transform how our clients price group life business.

PricePoint delivers a modern, intuitive, online interface that enhances speed, accuracy, and collaboration across every stage of your pricing journey.

Developed in partnership with Optalitix, an award-winning provider of no-code pricing and underwriting technology, PricePoint brings new levels of efficiency, visibility, and data intelligence to the pricing process.

KEY FEATURES

- Real-time data validation: Automated data checks and error identification help ensure accuracy before submissions reach underwriting.
- Enhanced oversight: Improved visibility into case status, referrals, and pricing outcomes – all in one place.
- Faster turnaround: Streamlined workflows mean quicker pricing responses and improved facultative referral processing.
- Analytics and insights: Richer data capture enables deeper insights, improved reporting, and future enhancements.
- Web-based interface: A secure, user-friendly platform that replaces Excel-based pricing models with a centralised online tool.
- No-code, configurable technology: Built using Optalitix's advanced no code platform, enabling flexibility, scalability, and fast optimisation.

POWERED BY OPTALITIX

Optalitix is an award-winning software provider specialising in no code pricing, underwriting, and automation solutions for insurers, reinsurers, MGAs, and financial services organisations.

Their platform brings scale, control, and speed to traditional actuarial and underwriting processes.
